1. Why are there restaurant requirements?

- The requirements for each restaurant are in place to ensure that the restaurant is at least covering its cost of food on every Gift Certificate redemption. Restaurant.com is able to provide such dining choice amongst 18,000 restaurants nationwide because its focus is to both save consumers money when they go out to eat as well as help restaurants become more profitable.

Note: The following are the typical restaurant requirements for the $10, $25, $50, $75, and $100 Restaurant.com Gift Cards:

One or Two-Person Dining Out Experiences

- $10 Restaurant.com Gift Card
  - Minimum purchase of $15. 18% Gratuity added prior to discount. Valid for Dine in ONLY.
- $25 Restaurant.com Gift Card
  - Minimum purchase of $35. 18% Gratuity added prior to discount. Valid for Dine in ONLY.

Larger Party Dining Out Experiences

- $50 Restaurant.com Gift Card
  - Minimum purchase of $100. 18% Gratuity added prior to discount. Valid for Dine in ONLY.
- $75 Restaurant.com Gift Card
  - Minimum purchase of $150. 18% Gratuity added prior to discount. Valid for Dine in ONLY.
- $100 Restaurant.com Gift Card
  - Minimum purchase of $200. 18% Gratuity added prior to discount. Valid for Dine in ONLY.

2. Why are there fewer restaurants in rural areas?

- Although Restaurant.com is nationwide, there will likely be fewer choices of restaurants in rural areas than in urban ones. That being said, Restaurant.com adds hundreds of new restaurants each month to its over 18,000 participating restaurants. You also have select online retailers toward which to apply your Gift Certificates including LobsterGram, Mrs. Fields, La Cense Beef, and The Fruit Company.

3. Can I use Restaurant.com Gift Cards outside of the United States (Canada or any other mentioned country)?

- At this time, Restaurant.com has participating restaurants that are located only in the United States.

4. What happens if I have a $5 credit remaining on my Restaurant.com Gift Card?

- You can “round up” and apply it toward a $10 Restaurant.com Gift Certificate.

5. What if I have questions about my dining out experience, who can I call?
